01 Overview

Kilovant Solar ("Kilovant", kilovantsolar.com) is giving away the freight for one full shipping container, paid by Kilovant, in a series of live prize draws, organised by HK DELTA CHINA TRADE CO., LIMITED, which operates the Kilovant brand. Each draw has one winner. Buyers who place a qualifying order are entered automatically.

02 Eligibility

Any buyer can take part, in any country where Kilovant can lawfully sell and ship to them. An order qualifies only if it meets all of these conditions:

- Single order of USD 100,000 or more. Separate orders are not added together.
- Deposit received. At least 30% of the order value has been paid to Kilovant in cleared funds. The entry counts from the moment the deposit is received.
- No credit terms. Orders paid on credit terms, including orders covered by Sinosure insurance, are not eligible.
- No sanctioned parties or destinations. Buyers, ports or countries covered by applicable sanctions are excluded where the law requires it.

03 Entries and rounds

Each qualifying order earns one entry. A single order of USD 200,000 or more earns two entries (two slots in the round). If such an order arrives when only one slot is left in a round, it takes the last slot and its second entry carries into the next round.

Entries are grouped into rounds of 6 slots. When a round has 6 slots filled by active entries, a live draw is held for that round, and the next round begins.

If an order is cancelled or refunded, its entry is void. Before a round is full, the slot reopens for another qualifying order. A cancellation never delays a draw: once a round is full and the draw date is announced, the draw is held on that date with the entries still active, and the cancelled slot is not refilled for that round.

04 The live draw

Every draw is held live, screen-shared and recorded. Kilovant announces the date and the platform in advance on its website and on all its social media accounts.

The draw works like this:

1. Each entry in the round appears on a digital wheel under an anonymized order code, not the buyer's name.
2. The full list of codes is read out before the wheel is spun.
3. The wheel is spun once. There are no re-spins.
4. The recording is kept available on Kilovant's page after the draw.

05 The prize

The prize is the freight cost of one full container, from Kilovant's shipping origin to the winner's port, paid by Kilovant. There is no maximum value: Kilovant pays the actual freight cost, even if it is higher than expected.

The prize covers the freight, and Kilovant bears the related costs on its own side at origin. Kilovant is not responsible for anything at or after the destination port, including customs duties, taxes, port and terminal charges, and delivery beyond the port.

The prize is applied to the winner's order. If that order has already shipped before the draw, the prize applies to the winner's next shipment. There is no cash alternative.

06 Winner conditions

The prize is not delivered until the round's draw has been held. It is not transferable.

If a winner cancels the winning order after the draw, they forfeit the prize and receive nothing in its place. Kilovant then gives the prize to another eligible customer, chosen by a further live draw among the remaining entries of that round.

07 General

Kilovant may update these terms. Changes apply only to entries counted after the updated terms are published, and updated terms are published on the Kilovant website and on all Kilovant social media accounts. Entrants are responsible for following the laws that apply to them, and Kilovant may exclude any entry where the law does not allow it.

These terms do not change the sales contract for the order. Questions: sales@kilovantsolar.com.
